

Herrick Promotes Sports Lawyer to Partner

The Herrick sports law group has announced the promotion of Liliana Chang to partner.

Chang began her career as a corporate associate at Herrick after graduating from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in 2010. In general, her practice has been focused on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, partnerships and strategic alliances, financings, corporate restructurings and reorganizations. She provides corporate governance and general corporate advice to boards, committees and directors.

She has also represented professional sports franchises on numerous high-profile team acquisitions and dispositions, joint ventures and financings.

Among the projects she has worked on in tandem with team leaders Dan Etna and/or Irwin Kishner are:

- Represented Levien Soccer in acquiring full ownership of MLS team D.C. United. <https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/soccer->
